

Discuss:

- (1) Carefully define even, odd, and prime numbers. Form a conjecture about the distribution of primes.
- (2) Use Euclid's algorithm to find the greatest common divisor of 871 and 427. What principle is behind the proof of this result (and also prop. VII.31)?
- (3) Present Euclid's great theorem and proof (IX.20).