

Math 300 Section 1.3 Additional Problems

1. Give examples of systems of linear equations with more equations than variables that illustrate each of the following possibilities: Has exactly one solution, has infinitely many solutions, and has no solution.